

1719

1720

1721

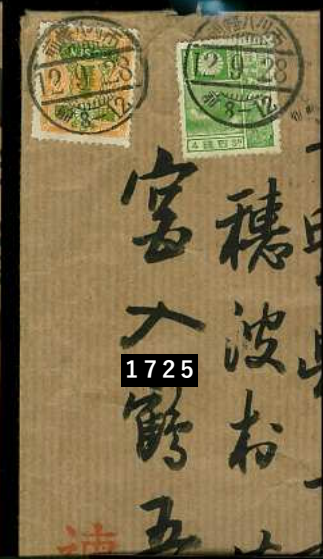

1722

1723

1724

1725

1726

1727

1728

1729

1730

1731

1732

1733

1734

1735

1736

1737

1739

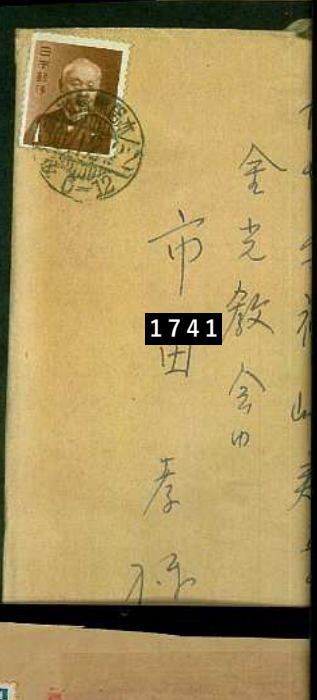

1742

1738

1740

1741

1743

1744

1745

局 県

左の事由に依り持戻りました

市外	月	日	集配員
市内	月	日	集配員
郵便市外	月	日	集配員
郵便市内	月	日	集配員
郵便市外	月	日	集配員
郵便市内	月	日	集配員

おついでの時弊出入へ転居先をお知らせ下さい

転居先不明
 料金を不納に付受取拒絶
 へ着するも不納に付受取拒絶
 転居した

転居先不明
 料金を不納に付受取拒絶
 へ着するも不納に付受取拒絶
 転居した

転居先不明
 料金を不納に付受取拒絶
 へ着するも不納に付受取拒絶
 転居した

転居先不明
 料金を不納に付受取拒絶
 へ着するも不納に付受取拒絶
 転居した

玉島郵便局

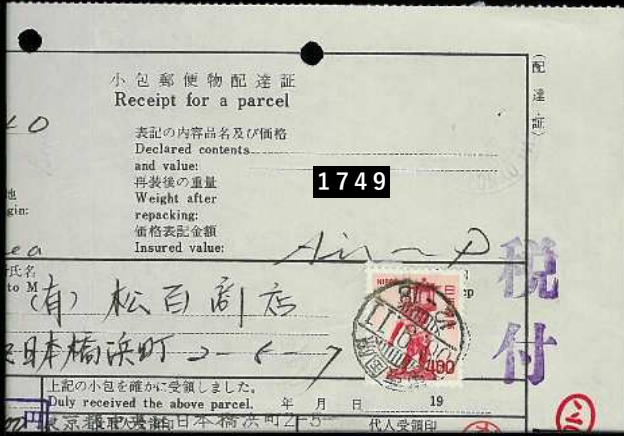

1746

1747

1748

1749

1750

1751

EX1752

1753

1754

1913

A 9 3 0 E D C 6

2027

2028

1914

1917

EX1915

Special Stamp Booklet to Commemorate the Philatelic Week, 1954
 The week beginning with November 20 was Japan's Philatelic Week for 1954, and was observed under the auspices of All Japan Philatelic League. A special stamp booklet was issued to commemorate it.
 The stamp booklet contains ten of 10 yen regular stamps, each featuring the marvellous painting of Kannon Goddess in Horyu-ji Temple. The stamp name was originally to be "Kannon Goddess in Horyu-ji Temple", but due to the fact that the word "Goddess" is not permitted in the Japanese postal stamps, it was changed to "Kannon Goddess in Horyu-ji Temple". The stamps are printed in the two blue and red colors.
 The booklet was on sale at the principal post office throughout the country during the Philatelic Week. Purchase may, however be made at the Philatelic Agency, Tokyo Central Post Office, through correspondence if more convenient. Total number printed is 50,000 copies and price 100 yen a copy.
 JAPAN POSTAL CULTURE ASSOCIATION, c/o Ministry of Postal Services, Asakusa P. O., Tokyo, Japan.

EX1918

1916

2029

2075

2115

2116

2117

2357

2358

2359

2362

2364

2365

2363

2366

2391

2392

2393

2397

2395

2396

2394

2398

2399

2402

2400

2401

2403

