The Constitution of Japan restored

Government is a sacred trust of the people, the authority for which is derived from the people, the powers of which are exercised by the representatives of the people, and the benefits of which are enjoyed by the people.

As the Supreme people desire peace for all time and are deeply conscious of the high ideals unfolding human relationship, and we have determined to preserve our society and existence, resting on the justice and faith of the peace loving peoples of the world.
