

明の何内
梅谷の孫

Handwritten text in red ink, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The characters are arranged in vertical columns and appear to be a formal address or a message.

Large, faint red watermark or stamp on the paper, oriented diagonally. It contains the characters '1000' and '1951'.